Introduction

Hello readers.
I am Miss Maria.
Let's look at the mountains and hills around us. Many mountains in Malaysia are covered by trees, but they are actually made up of different types of rocks.

What is rocks?
Rocks are made up of different minerals. At the same time, minerals are formed by different chemical compositions.

